

INGER HANSSON

SWEDEN

My name is Inger Hansson. I have had Cairn terriers since the early 1970's.

My kennel (Wictorys) today breeds Cairn Terriers and Bolonkas. My first litter was born in 1975.

I have been a board member of the Swedish Cairn Terrier Club, the East Swedish Terrier Club and the Swedish Terrier Club.

For many years I have been a member of the judge conference committee of the Swedish Terrier Club.

I have received medals for meritorious breeding from the Swedish Terrier Club and the Swedish Cairn Terrier Club.

In 1996 I began training as a judge and was authorised in 1997.

I judge dogs in group 3 and some breeds in group 9 and have started training for some breeds in group 1.

I have judged in all Nordic countries, Russia, Germany, Switzerland, France, Holland, and Italy.
